- Handicap rule: before the start of each game, the rating difference between the teams (for 6 end games only) is MULTIPLIED by 1 ½ and added to the score of the lower rated team
- The team giving up points will have the hammer for the first end. Equally rated teams will spin for the hammer

Olympic Doubles

If you are both experienced curlers and would like to hone your skills, Olympic Doubles is for you.

- Teams with a 5.5 rating or higher
- 8 ends are played and only 6 rocks are played for each team. One rock from each team is placed strategically at the beginning of each end and the remaining 5 are thrown from each team
- Sweeping is allowed by both players between the hog lines
- One player throws the first and last rock while the other throws the middle 3
- No rock can be hit out of play until the 4th rock is thrown

Challenge your skills and your strategic mind with this exciting new game. A computer display will be available during sign up.
